Good morning Professor Wright:

In light of the revelations of the medium article and president Frederick's admission that the administration and board knew of the financial impropriety, I am no longer comfortable representing the FS council on an administration led evaluation and assessment body, PPTF.

The president said in the last full senate meeting that the administration would not rule out using the results of PPTF to fire faculty (and without giving programs a chance to address deficiencies) in part because of financial problems.

I am therefore resigning as the FS council representative to the PPTF.

Sincerely,

Marcus Alfred
