

Send this to "The Chronicle of Higher Education" with a letter explaining more fully what occurred & include Howard's Mission Statement. I'd cc the Board of Trustees, too. Are your faculty members of the AAUP? If so, copy the President of the U's AAUP.

On second thought, Kendal, you might just consider transferring to a more stable university. I just saw series of unflattering news articles about the president as I googled his contact information. Here's one:

Howard U faculty leaders vote no confidence in university president...

You should forward your email and the president's response to the faculty senate, the head of student government, and the Board of Trustees.

Your email was respectful, while explaining the dire situation you and other students face. After googling the President of Howard University, it appears the faculty and staff have been trying to remove him for some time.

Howard U faculty leaders vote no confidence in university president...

@DrCharlesBoyd I find this response from @HowardU President to a student asking for guidance very inappropriate and unnecessary. Is this a typical response from Wayne Frederick? What is Howard University teaching its students?

@HowardU should hold their president accountable for his misogyny towards this student. act now. this is unacceptable.

Your tone and tenor were entirely appropriate. Howard University needs to check their President's dismissiveness and exaggerated sensitivity.

Me: waiting for the cameras to pop out and tell me that my whole freshman year was a prank and I'm actually going to get housing and that Douglas actually isn't on life support and that Howard actually cares about its students

The #HowardHousingCrisis is one of many reasons why I'm transferring. I'm definitely getting the hell out of here before everything comes crashing down.

Black media is so important! When #HowardHousingCrisis went viral @Blavity, @Campuslately @FreshU_HBCU hopped to give the students a platform. I immediately wrote an article on @thehbcupulse & shared it on @urbanintellects. @TheHilltopHU & @HUResist passed along info to #hu

Saying "I told you so" is unprofessional but I will say the story isn't over and what Howard is doing to its students isn't right

Amid Upcoming Quad Renovations: Is There A Housing Crisis In The Making? Story by: (@Maya_BlakeM) <http://thehilltoponline.com/2018/02/01/amid-upcoming-quad-renovations-is-there-a-housing-crisis-in-the-making/> ...

This clown Frederick should not be in this position.
His answer smacks of elitism, and how dare you, lowly student, communicate with me the College President.
Let me smack you down.
"Tone and Tenor", what the hell is this, a recital?
What motivates you to address me in this manner.
Yess su Massa. Sorry Massa.
Well my son just had HU on his list of Schools, I marched right to his room explained to him, this condescending prick of a College President at HU.
HU was removed immediately.
Don't want schmucks like those, helping to mold my child.
Piece of excrement.
As an HU alum, my yearly donation stops, as of right now.

Given the cost of rentals in the district, his response to this student's very valid concern was extremely rude. And yes, Howard is private property but telling the press they can't come on campus to interview students? What a serious PR fail as all any reporter has to do nowadays is go to social media to outreach to students. Is the Howard Board of Directors paying attention here?

When someone like this administrator refers to 'tone' or says your being 'terse', they are bullying you.

"Don't bother me with your petty problems, I am too important". "You haven't accessed to correct party, you stupid kid, don't bother me with your problems".

This guy should be fired, and immediately.

Yeah, I bet they didn't want WAPO on site, lol. This story says ugly things about money and students at this school.

Howard is notorious for their poor treatment of students. Their financial aid office is infamous for the way they mistreat students. Although Howard alumnae come back in large numbers for homecoming, alumnae giving is poor because of their experience as undergrads. I know many Howard grads who have said they won't give back to the university because of the way financial aid treated them. The son of a good friend transferred from Howard and his parents continued to receive tuition bills for him 2 years after he transferred. My spouse offered to hand deliver the paperwork to Howard to prove he was no longer a student. The university was threatening to sue. The students have valid concerns and the university needs to treat their students with dignity and respect instead of contempt. Maya McCollum added,

That response from the HU president was disrespectful and unnecessary. I'm reminded of the critiques ppl had of @jelani9's article abt HU/Frederick and it looks like folks weren't lying.
