Dear Howard University Community,

Howard University is fully accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE), a voluntary membership association of colleges and universities located in the mid-Atlantic region. Every ten years, each institution in MSCHE's jurisdiction undergoes a re-accreditation process. This involves the development of an institutional self-study, a visit to the campus by representatives from other institutions who have reviewed our self-study, and a determination regarding continued accreditation at the end of the process. As an institution, we have started the self-study process, in preparation for an MSCHE site visit in 2019-2020.

Dr. Rubin Patterson, Chairman of the Department of Sociology & Criminology, has been selected to Chair the Self-Study process, and will oversee various working groups composed of faculty, student, staff, and alumni representatives from each of our 13 Schools and Colleges.

An additional key aspect of this process, is a visit from our Middle States Liaison, Dr. Ellie Fogarty, Vice President for Institutional Field Relations, which will take place tomorrow, September 7, 2018. Dr. Fogarty will meet with various faculty, staff, students, and administrators, culminating in an open session for faculty, staff, and students from 1 – 2:30 p.m. in the School of Business 2nd Floor Auditorium. During this forum, Dr. Fogarty will explain the accreditation process, discuss the role of faculty, staff and students, as well as answer any questions that you may have.

We encourage the Howard University community to participate in this open forum, and learn more about the MSCHE accreditation process. Additional details regarding the self-study process, working groups, and other key information will be provided shortly.

Excellence In Truth and Service,
