Title: The Genetic Basis & Evolutionary History of Skin Pigmentation Variation in African &

African American Populations Abstract: With increased access to diverse populations from Africa along with advances in computational methods, we are now able to explore new and long-standing questions regarding the genetic architecture and evolutionary history of variable phenotypes in humans.

FS Steering committee meeting, Wednesday 3/4/2020, Senate Office, 1-2pm

FS Council meeting, Wednesday 4/8/2020, Senate Office, time TBD

FS Full Senate Meeting, 4/9/2020, place and time TBD

Prof. James Jackson has volunteered to become the editor and restart the Senate Communicator! Thank you! From Prof. Jackson,

“The Faculty Senate has been discussing issues related to resources, technology, classroom conditions, laboratory/graduate school policies, student treatment, and others. If you would like to write a short (1-2 pages) piece about any of the issues or other things that are important to you, that will serve to inform all faculty members and contribute to the overall well-being of the university, I welcome submissions by February 29, 2020 at 5:00 PM. Please make sure that your submissions are in Word format, include your name, position, and department. You may also include a photo. If you have questions or need further clarification, please email me at jt_jackson@howard.edu or call me at 240-422-0963. My thanks in advance.”

Actions/Discussions (some attachments):

The HU Board appears to not follow their own rules regarding the Faculty Trustee nominations: (BoardAnnouncement.pdf, BoardIgnoringRules.pdf)
