Good morning Colleagues,

I hope you all are well. Just a few quick updates.

1. Election results update. I've attached the raw results and the certification of the results. The CoC still has to complete their work for the election. I'd like to thank them, Ms. McDougall, and Prof. Kelly for all the hard work they've done to complete this years election in extraordinary circumstances.
2. I've attached the board actions document sent to us for June, 2020.
3. Faculty Success Recognition. Congratulations to Dr. Catherine Quinlan! Please consider attending her webinar today!

If you've papers, talks, conference reports, please let us know so that we can celebrate your accomplishments!

4. Faculty Grievance Commission (FGC)

I've been asked by faculty for names of lawyers that can help them prepare their Grievances that will be submitted to the Faculty Grievance Commission. I'll ask some of our colleagues in the grievance process if they can make recommendations. In addition, I know AAUP has a list of respected attorneys that are familiar and successful representing faculty and can provide good advice.

5. Your voice is important! The HU Faculty Senate represents all full time faculty. Please vote, support academic freedom, support shared governance, and add your voice to conversations on faculty matters on the Senate Forum.

The forums may be found here: <https://hufaculty.com/>

Thanks,

Marcus
