Hi Dr. Conway,

I hope you are well. I'm not sure if you all would be interested, but I can get a group of faculty that are doing serious research at HU. I'd mentioned that HU was broken. Maybe by hearing from these faculty, the trustees can see how bad the disconnect is between their policy intentions and actual policy impacts. And they can see how little honest feedback they are getting through current communication channels. Let me know if this might be helpful? (they might have some good ideas on solutions too)

Best,

Marcus
