Good morning colleagues,

Congratulations to the NTT Faculty Union. They won. We got the following message this morning:

We are pleased to share that, at 3:26 a.m. on March 23, 2022, the non-tenure track faculty and SEIU Local 500 reached a tentative agreement with the Howard University administration. This tentative agreement is subject to a vote of ratification by the union membership, which will be scheduled in the coming weeks. All details will be shared and forthcoming

We are hereby calling off the strike. We will be meeting at the flagpole between 9 and 10 a.m. to talk more about this historic achievement for improving the lives of teaching faculty, and strengthening the Howard community as a whole. We encourage faculty to conduct classes on Wednesday.

And congratulations to all of you and your colleagues for the integrity, courage, and leadership you've shown over the last few months.

Best,

Marcus Alfred, Chair
HU Faculty Senate
