

Enclosure #2

Below are recommendations regarding Howard University students that were leaders in the Blackburn Takeover and expelled/suspended within the last year.

Recommendation of formal apology from Board of Trustees to these students.

Recommendation of re-admission to Howard University with full-scholarships and stipends. (If the students have completed undergraduate studies elsewhere, then they should be given graduate admission to Howard University, with scholarships and stipends)

Recommendation of annual scholarships to five students each year who pursue social justice / racial equality. (The scholarships may be named for students and/or the protest itself.)
